

Cash Register

- Command line application
- Your store has a list items
 - 1- 10 Pants at price 100.
 - 2- 40 Shoes at price 400
 - 3- 50 Shirts at price 99
 - ...

Each of these items have price, quantity and description.

Your program should print the list of all the items in the store as shown above and ask the user

Program: which would you like to purchase:

user: <1>

Program: how many pants would you like?

user: <2>

Program: your total cost is 200$

Cash Register

- Program should adjust the quantity left in the store for that item.
- Maintain a history list of all the purchase that includes the time, amount, the item name, total amount.

Bonus

- Your program should have a manager menu.
- If manager enters the special key.
- The program will allow the manager to restock
- The program will allow the manger to view history.
- This program does not persist any data.